

The Government of Very Cruz is besieged by persons claiming the $100,000 reward for a cure for yellow fever.

—Leta M. T. Co., Gentlemen: It affords me pleasure to recommend your Dandelion Tonic. It has on three occasions cured me of malarious attacks, against which other medicines were ineffectual. I consider it an excellent remedy for that sluggish, unhealthy condition of the system brought on by excessively warm or damp weather, and a malarious atmosphere.

H. C. BURNETT,
Assistant Editor Lawrence Standard.
The coronation of the Czar is to take place April next.

Feeble Ladies.
Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity, driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful; can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?

The Emperor and Empress of Brazil will soon visit Europe.

The Fabre of the Lion, the Ass and the Fox has a moral quite applicable to the present day. It is this: "Better be wise by the misfortune of others than by your own." How few heed the lesson here taught. Each one seems to demand misfortune before learning wisdom. The young are too self-reliant—the old are stubborn. You have a friend who late yesterday buried his wife, another looked upon his daughter the last time. They both had been suffering from a chronic female complaint, which finally resulted in death. They refused to secure remedies that would effect a cure. Your wife or daughter is suffering from the very same complaint and you know it. You do not secure the medicine and they are gradually declining. Does not the fate of others stare you in the face? Without delay place them upon the use of English Female Bitters. It does not fail. It strengthens, regulates and cures with promptness.

One thousand eight hundred more French troops have arrived at Tunis.

One Experience from Many.
"I had been sick and miserable so long, and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, as one seemed to know what ailed me that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me they said, 'Hurray for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'"—The mother.

L. W. Boynton, of Hartford, Conn., now owns the life of the relief, "Alabama." The bunting is insured for $10,000.

That lady, married or single, who has become irregular each month, who is feeble, pale and emaciated, who is annoyed with ache and pains, should use one or two bottles of English Female Bitters. Its action is prompt and satisfactory. It is prepared especially for these troubles.

The Persian Government intends to confine Ayoub Khan probably at Tehran.

All who lead a closely confined life are more frequent subjects of colds, coughs, headache and indigestion. If you use Bailey's Sassafras it will cure you entirely. It is as pleasant as a glass of soda, cheaper than pills and never fails.

Hon. Eli P. Gorman, a prominent Democratic politician of Southern Indiana, is dead.

Dyspeptic symptoms, such as retching of the food, belching, heat in the stomach, heartburn, etc., promptly cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

In the Land Court, Justice O'Hagan replying to a League solicitor, said no evicted tenant should lose his rights.

—Leta M. T. Co. taken in small doses after meals, will in almost all cases, restore that loss of "nervous force" so humiliating to the sufferer.

John Van Horn, postal clerk has been arrested at Harrisburg, Pa., for robbing the mails.

A force of 30,000 French troops under five Generals, is now marching on Kairwan, Tunis.

Scarcely any disease to which human beings are subject, is so thoroughly disconcerting as Fever and Ague. The periodical return of alternate chills, fever and sweating, is terrible depressing. Ayer's Sassafras Cure is the only remedy known, which is certain to cure permanently, by expelling the malarial poison which produces the disease. It does this surely, and leaves no ill effect upon the system.

The President has accepted the resignation of First Assistant Postmaster-General Tynar.

Warranted not to contain a single particle of mercury, or any injurious or mineral substance, but to consist entirely of medical matter purely vegetable, which is the reason Simmons' Liver Regulator is so effective, yet so harmless.

FOR THE COUNTY PAPER. "JUDGE NOT UNJUSTLY."

How hard it is to refrain from judging people by their deeds. Little do we consider that when we are condemning others, we are condemned in the same measure, or, perhaps, to a greater extent. It has been said in words of Holy Writ, "for with what judgment ye judge ye shall be judged, and with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again," and how true it is. The man who judges a woman to be, in the eyes of the people, the lowest of her sex little thinks how often the same judgment is passed on his loved ones. The woman who is constantly judging others, often from the vileness of her own heart, little thinks in what low esteem she is held by those, even who listen to her. It has been said, "Blame not before you examine the truth." How often a life of misery would be prevented if we would use this as our motto. If others judge us unjustly, let our lives be such, no one will give them credit. And let us examine closely, into the mottoes or what may be the mottoes of a deed before passing judgment and condemning it. Notice two persons. One has always an excuse for every one who may act a little different from their ideas of propriety. It is a pleasure to be associated with such a person. You feel that you character is safe in their hands. On the other hand how we dread the society of those who color every word and deed to make it appear evil. Why can't we be more charitable? We are not so free from faults that we can afford to misjudge others. It has been said: "We often censure the conduct of others when under similar circumstances, we might not have acted half so well." Harsh judgment is an expression of suspicion in a noble nature is a plant of long growth. The winds and the rains of many summers must prepare a generous heart to nourish suspicion of that which approaches under cover of a smile and a pleasant word. Why is the Golden Rule so often obeyed? It seems easy and is easy, if we would only think so. Most of this fault-finding is an acquired habit. It is just as easy to acquire the habit of speaking well of a person or not speaking of them at all. Let each and all try it, and see if they are not much happier. When we are tempted to pass unjust judgment, pause and think, if we would like the same said of us and it is right. Again we are all too quick to judge unjustly the acts of our friends. We often feel ourselves slighted when we are not. We sometimes fancy ourselves neglected, when, if we would inquire into the cause, we would find ourselves mistaken. Do not let pride prevent you seeking an explanation of that you do not understand. A great many offer as an excuse, "It is human nature, we can't go against nature." So it may be, but we can guard ourselves against it, until we can conquer nature. No good is obtained without hard and pre-stant labor. Let us, one and all, see what we can do to put down this evil. Nobody's character is safe, while misjudgment rules. How much more profitable to make ourselves acquainted with the best writers than to destroy the happiness of others. How often we are made to cry out "deliver me from my friends for even friends do not always judge us a right."

HOLT COUNTY.

Its Location, Financial Condition and Inducements to Immigrants.

The richest and most productive soil in the world.—Thomas H. Benton.

The most beautiful country I ever looked upon.—Agard Taylor.

Are you coming West? Come to Holt county where the atmosphere is pure, clear and bracing—where hundreds of people, from cities and elsewhere, throughout the east and south resort for health and pleasure, and take up their residence during summer's heated term.

Holt county is situated in the northwestern corner of Missouri, and is the banner county of the famous "Platte Purchase;" is bounded on the north by Atchison and Nodaway counties; on the east by Nodaway and Andrew counties; on the south and west by the Missouri River, which separates it from Kansas and Nebraska. It has an area equal to 46,134 square miles. The soil is a loessium; composed of layers of sand, vegetable mold and clay. Its fertility is absolutely unsurpassed; the average number of bushels per acre of the various products being as follows: corn, 86; wheat, 28; oats, 24; barley, 10; rye, 22; Irish potatoes, 20; sweet potatoes, 300; turnips, 200; pumpkins, 200; peas, 300; beans, 300; clover, 300; grass, 300; alfalfa, 300; timothy, 300; hay, 300; straw, 300; and all other crops in proportion.

The best of water is to be had in the first 10 miles, running throughout the whole of the county. Abundant shade, and a beautiful view of a beautiful country can be seen from all parts of the county.

No laborer can escape the fact that the country is a beautiful one, and a beautiful view of a beautiful country can be seen from all parts of the county.
